introduction

St. John's Manor

Originally, the land upon which St. John's is built was part of a large private estate: bordered to the east by Gage Lane, to the west by Old Mill Road, to the north by West Main, and to the south by Maple. Philip Washburn Moen was owner. Mr. Moen was retired president of Washburn and Moen Manufacturing Company (later to be the Steel & Wire Division of U.S. Steel). In 1905 Mr. Moen commissioned the construction of a 30-room mansion. Until it was razed in the mid-1970's, the house was known to area residents as the Brewer Mansion.

In 1912, Mr. Charles H. Hutchins purchased the house and property. Mr. Hutchins (of Knolls Loomworks, Worcester) had three children. He commissioned architects to build a private residence for each. The Worcester firm of L.W. Briggs built our present day manor house for Mr. Hutchins' bachelor son Arthur in 1914. After Arthur moved to California, the house and lands given to him were purchased by Doctor Cleveland. In 1941, the Doctor's widow, Gertrude, sold the property to Mr. Clifford B. Sweet, vice-president of Brewer & Company, a pharmaceutical firm. Mr. Sweet named his estate "Dunmorlan." He and his family resided here for 14 years.

During the Worcester tornado in 1953, the house sustained minor damage: tiling on the roof was torn off and the stone chimney above the front bedroom was knocked to the ground. In 1955, the Xaverian Brothers purchased "Dunmorlan" while a suitable location for an expanded St. John's was found. (Original plans did not call for the construction of a school building on the Shrewsbury property.) In 1959, the ground was broken for the high school building. Later, Pioneer Field was acquired at the bottom of Main Street Hill. These 44 acres (once part of the Moen, then Hutchins, then Brewer Estate) had originally served as a hay field, and then had been leased as a golf driving range. Flavian Hall

Unique and somewhat recent, Flavian Hall is an integral part of the St. John's tradition. Built in the late 1960's, the building is named in honor of Brother Flavian (Feb. 22, 1886 to August 4, 1974) who was a reading tutor and typing teacher at St. John's from 1962 until his death.

Brother Flavian was quite the personality. He was known for breaking up rocks and depositing them in the woods in his task of never tiring groundskeeper, even at the age of seventy. At his death, Brother Flavian was the senior Xaverian Brother in America, and, so, St. John's has honored him by creating Flavian Hall.

Flavian Hall has provided extra room for classes, but it has become more than just extra space. It has grown into a building with a personality all its own. The classrooms of Flavian are vertical rather than horizontal. In addition to classes, the Drama club makes use of Flavian's Little Theatre, which is also used for the showing of movies. Flavian has special significance to St. John's. (Jonathan Phelps '81)

football

The 1979 Football Pioneers finished their season with a 6-4-0 record. The season opened with a 34-20 loss to perennially strong Leominster. After defeating Holy Name 22-0, the Pioneers suffered their second set-back of the season at the hands of Doherty High, 22-16. Under the lights at Gardner on the first week-end of October, Saint John's won an easy 40-8 victory. The SJ win streak was stopped at three at Shrewsbury on Oct. 27, after SJ had previously defeated Don Bosco (41-14) and Fitchburg (27-0). After defeating Wachusett 21-0, Saint John's defeated Burncoat, before losing to St. Peter-Marian in the Thanksgiving Day Finale at Pioneer Field.

C.M.C. Football All-Stars included Seniors Bill Pelosky, Mark Lefebvre, Anthony Sereti, Tom Dougherty, Mike Benson, and Sean Hooper. Juniors Jim Healy and Mike Moynihan were also C.M.C. All-Stars. Bill Pelosky was also chosen to the Telegram & Gazette All-Star team.

Keeping the tradition of Saint John's sports as the dominating force in Worcester County, the S.J. Soccer team won the Central Mass. Conference for the fourth time in the past five years. The team complied a 14-1-3 regular season record. Unfortunately, in the District quarter-finals, the varsity lost its only post-season game to Leominster High by the margin of 3-1.

The team's greatest asset was co-captain Bob Lemay. With this year's performance of 38 points (31 goals and 7 assists), Bob is at the top of the St. John's record books for most points per season. Top varsity scorers after Bob included: Phil Desimone (9 points), Bruce Francis (8 points), Chuck Pratt (6 points), and Jerry Coggins (5 points). Central Mass. Conference All-Stars included Bob Lemay, Bruce Francis, and Mike Dolan on the first team; Joe Braley on the second team; and Honorable Mentions to Phil Desimone, Ted Sykes, and Ted Heywood. Bob Lemay was also chosen to the Central Mass. Coaches All-Star, and the Mass. State All-Star teams.

The J.V.'s final record was 8-5-0. Top scores included Paul LaChance and Paul Larkin (12 points each), and Steve Pultorak and Mark Minnucci (5 points each). The Freshmen posted a 9-1-1 record: the best ever by a SJ Frosh team.

thanksgiving & ring mass

On November 8, 1979, the Class of 1981 had a Junior Ring Mass Liturgy celebrated by Rev. Terence Kilcoyne '67. In the course of the Mass, Mr. Bibaud presented class rings to the Juniors. Thanksgiving at SJ began the Wednesday before with a half-day of school. The day ended with a Thanksgiving Mass celebrated by Rev. Gerald Laba, C.P. In the course of the Mass, St. John's students brought gifts of food (collected in homerooms for needy families) to the altar at the Offertory. The Mass was followed by a Pep Rally as a prelude to the 55th renewal of the annual rivalry between the Pioneers of St. Jo's and the Guardians of St. Peter-Marian's.

cross country

The Varsity Cross Country team closed the season with a record of twelve wins and two losses. Coach Brother Raymond Hoyt pegged this advancement on the dedication of the runners. To be a good runner, the athlete must begin practice during the summer and work hard to better his times by running long distances. Running long distances on courses that range from 2.1 to 3 miles in the best time possible is the basis of Cross Country.

There were times when the team flourished: as in its one point victory over Wachusett. But the sport is a strange one in which the situation changes as readily as the terrain: such was the case in the team's narrow defeat by the Red Raiders of Fitchburg.

On the Varsity level, Senior captain Mike Curran established a team record of 15:04 for the 2.8 mile SJ course (the overall record of 14:55 for the SJ course is held by RIchard Garven of Nashoba). Mike also led SJ runners at the Wachusett Invitational (13th place) and the Knights of Columbus Road Race (11th). Junior Gary Beisaw led the team at the District III finals, placed 16 in the K. of C. race, and 11th at the C.M.C. Championship Meet. C.M.C. All-Stars Dennis Jerome and Jay Coggins placed 8th and 9th repectively in the C.M.C. championship meet.

The Junior Varsity had four wins and three losses. Top Sophomores included Bill Randell, Tony Salerno, and John Whitney. The Freshmen team led by Frank Haight and Peter Pratt placed third in the Freshmen State Catholic Championships.

125 years; student council

The Xaverian Brothers were founded in Bruges, Belgium by Theodore James Ryken. In 1831, Ryken came to America and worked as a missionary in South Bend, Indiana. In 1839 he established a group to do missionary work. By 1854, the group had grown and Bishop Spalding of Louisville, Kentucky, asked Ryken to send Brothers from Belgium to the United States to teach.

Thus, in 1854, the Xaverian Brothers formally arrived in the United States, and, in the process attained the distinction of becoming the first religious order founded to send missionaries to America as its primary purpose. Six Brothers arrived in Louisville in 1854. In 1979 the community of St. John's joined with the twenty-seven Xaverian Brothers at St. John's to commemorate the 125th anniversary of the Brothers' arrival in America.

In 1894, The Brothers arrived in Worcester to teach at St. John's. Although the school began on Temple Street in Worcester, Bishop Wright, in 1954, gave the school to the Brothers who later moved to the present Shrewbury location.

St. John's Drama Club's presentation of Leo Brady's Brother Orchid took place in the St. John's Cafeteria on Saturday, Feb. 2, and Sunday, Feb. 3.

"I guess you got to train people to get them used to kindness, huh?" These lines, spoken by Bro. Orchid, indicated the simple but insightful nature of our main character. Little John Sarto – Brother Orchid, is a man who has not known the presence of other people in his life. The kindness he finds with the Little Brothers introduces him to a more simplistic way of life he has not known in the underworld. Although the plot is not a complicated one, Brother Orchid does leave us an important message. The old cliche says that it is the simple things in life that count. Perhaps, if we, too, were to pause and reflect upon our real joys, they would be found not in the tangible realities of our world, but in the kindnesses we extend to one another. – from "The Director's Message" by Mr. Don Nicole.

Success varied greatly for the 1979-1980 Pioneer basketball teams. The most successful team was the Freshmen, coached by Mr. Michael Lahey, with a 16-1 record. "If the boys stay together in the school as a team, Saint John's is sure to take the division in three years, if not sooner," remarked Mr. Lahey.

Mr. Paul Phillips' J.V. team had its ups and downs but managed to end its season with a winning 11-9 record after a strong start and strong finish; it was the middle of the season where defeats were encountered.

On the varsity side of the locker room, there was disappointment early in the season. The team lost to strong Holy Name, North, St. Peter-Marian teams, as well as two losses in the Nashua Tournament. However, the team constantly improved and ended the season with an 11-11 record; the team placed third in the Central Mass Conference with a 10-4 league record. The high point of the season would have to be the achievement of Mr. Bibaud. Mr. Bibaud's years of dedication to the sport of basketball has made him the coach with the greatest number of wins in Mass. High School History.

stanley cup, p.e. award, publications

March and April of 1980 saw the annual Stanley Cup Street Hockey competition under the sponsorship of Mr. Lane, Mr. Case, and the Physical Education Department. A record number of teams participated in this single elimination tournament.

In May Mr. Lane conducted his annual "Pioneer Athlete Award." Through various skill-tests, an individual is measured for agility and conditioning. Mr. Lane acknowledged five outstanding athletes in this year's contest.

ICON, St. John's literary and art journal, is created by and published for the students of St. John's. ICON Awards were made in 1980 in two categories: "Fire in the Sky" (Photography) by Thomas Dintino '82, and "The Rolling Stones" (Graphics) by Thomas Dolan '80. Thomas Dolan was editor, David Concordia, assistant editor, and Mr. Alphonse Palaima was moderator.

The 1980 Yearbook represents the work of many people. Dan Grabauskas, Jay Prefontaine, Stephen Oliveri, Steve Nordborg, Charles Trainor, and Steve Chang supplied pictures. Although everyone at St. John's is involved somehow in the production of the Yearbook, special thanks is due to the following:

see how they run

The St. John's Drama Club presented Phillips King's "See How They Run" in the St. John's Manor House on May 10 and 11, 1980. Cast members included: Anne Marie Harrington (Ida, the maid), Patty Mahon (Miss Skillon), Joseph Palermo (the Reverend Lionel Toop), Judy Underwood (Penelope Toop), Bob Pepi, (Corporal Clive Winton), Ted Doyle (the Intruder), Jim Polito (The Bishop of Lax), Bill Keevan (The Reverend Arthur Humphrey), and Tom Mahon (Sergeant Towers).

Mr. Donald J. Nicole was the play's director; we quote from his note in the play's program:

"See How They Run is a story of mistaken identities in a British vicarage. But, in directing this play, it has become obvious to me that Phillip King intended for his audiences to find much more than comic entertainment. See How They Run is no major dramatic work. The play leaves us no moral; it teaches no lesson. Yet it is a play which celebrates life. It is a play which allows us the space needed to laugh. And what is life without laughter?"

golf and tennis: outstanding

Two of the most successful athletic teams at St. John's are golf and tennis. The championships captured by both teams in the past few years attest to the success of the golf and tennis programs and the excellence of their coaching.

The SJ tennis team boasted the Central Mass. doubles champions in Senior Jeff Nitz and Junior Steve Queenan. The team, as a whole, finished the season with a 16-3 record and another Central Mass. Conference Championship for the Pioneers. In the District III Team Championship, SJ had to settle for the runner-up position. In the semi-finals of District III action, the Pioneers defeated Wachusett 4-1 behind victories by John Connors, Bob Cashman (in singles), and the doubles teams of Jeff Nitz – Steve Queenan and and Keith Traub – Jim Hayes. In the District III finals, John Connors and Bob Cashman scored for the Pioneers in their 3-2 defeat at the hands of Milford.

After completing the season with an undefeated 16-0 record and another C.M.C. Championship, the Pioneers entered post-season play. In the State Individual Championship, Junior Terry O'Hara finished fourth overall. In the District III team competition, St. John's continued its domination of District competition, winning the district championship for the third straight year. Medalist Terry O'Hara led all competition with a 73; Freshman Fran Quinn scored a 74; Sophomore Joe Kelleher had a 76, while Junior Richard Eid rounded out the SJ top four with a score of 81. In the State Championship at Green Hill Golf Course in Worcester, the Pioneers ended their season as number four in the state: with a team of all underclassmen.

On the eve of April 11, the Senior Class held its annual prom at the Sheraton-Sturbridge. The prom in the eyes of those who attended was deemed an ultimate success.

After many months of hard work, it seemed unbelievable that the night had come. The prom began at 7:30 with the traditional receiving line. Later, the band, Image, started to perform. The main course was Prime Rib. As the evening progressed, the atmosphere began to relax and many of the seniors came to realize that this would be their last social function together.

This year's prom was dedicated to Mr. Charles Bibaud whose efforts helped many through the last four years.

One can say on April 11, the class of 1980 truly went out in style. – Dan Dillon '80.

"Tonight, I want to repeat what I keep telling youth; You are the future of the world, and 'The day of tomorrow belongs to you.'

" . . . The message of love that Christ brought is always important, always relevent. It is not difficult to see how today's world, despite its beauty and grandeur, despite the conquests of technology, despite the refined and abundant material goods that it offers, is yearning for more truth, for more love, for more happiness. And all of this is found in Christ and in his way of life.

" . . . Whatever you make of your life . . . let it be something that reflects the love of Christ. The whole people of God will be all the richer because of the diversity of your commitments. And whatever you do, remember that Christ, is calling you, in one way or another, to the service of love: the love of God and of your neighbor."
